CALL FOR ARTICLES AND PHOTOS

We hope you enjoy OCEO's monthly newsletter and learning about the many ways UT faculty, staff, and students can increase their self-esteem, and cultivate positive attitudes toward learning. Be a part of the difference children are making while getting ahead in the classroom.

FUNDING AND AWARDS

January 18-21, 2023 and will increase the amount of self-awareness and community-oriented leaders created. Participants in the program will experience a breakthrough in the leadership capacity of participants and facilitators which is demonstrated on their certificate and career.

NEWS

- East Tennessee Freedom Freedom Schools Paid Internship
- UT to Host Japanese Roundtable
- Commission for Blacks Celebrates Major Milestone
- 2022 Impact Highlights:
  - Workshops designed to help with post-secondary access, cultural identity, and career and leadership development.
  - Grant to the college application process.
  - 51 college fairs attended.
  - 51 college tours.
  - 11 cultural/community building events.
  - 11 college fairs.
  - 313 career panels/workshops.
  - 75 Latinx college students received stipends to be mentors paired with rising seniors to help students and family members attend the Latino College and Resource Fair.
  - 313 youth and young adults received individual college & career counseling for a total of 72.75 hours.
  - 313 students and family members attended the Latino College and Resource Fair.

- Grants and Awards
  - Faculty award is based on demonstrated outstanding contributions to the public service.
  - Mission. The faculty award is based on demonstrated outstanding contributions to the public engagement.
  - FSA Scholarship which was awarded to Golden Eagle Scholarship which was awarded to 3.
  - TrueRemove®aight.
  - UTK will host a Japanese Business Roundtable on Tuesday, January 3, 2023.
  - The event will feature Consulate of Japan, Nashville, Yoichi Matsumoto as a leader for the discussion.

- 2023 SEMINAR SERIES

FUNDING AND AWARDS

January 18-21, 2023 and will increase the amount of self-awareness and community-oriented leaders created. Participants in the program will experience a breakthrough in the leadership capacity of participants and facilitators which is demonstrated on their certificate and career.

NEWS

- East Tennessee Freedom Freedom Schools Paid Internship
- UT to Host Japanese Roundtable
- Commission for Blacks Celebrates Major Milestone
- 2022 Impact Highlights:
  - Workshops designed to help with post-secondary access, cultural identity, and career and leadership development.
  - Grant to the college application process.
  - 51 college fairs attended.
  - 51 college tours.
  - 11 cultural/community building events.
  - 11 college fairs.
  - 313 career panels/workshops.
  - 75 Latinx college students received stipends to be mentors paired with rising seniors to help students and family members attend the Latino College and Resource Fair.
  - 313 youth and young adults received individual college & career counseling for a total of 72.75 hours.
  - 313 students and family members attended the Latino College and Resource Fair.

- Grants and Awards
  - Faculty award is based on demonstrated outstanding contributions to the public service.
  - Mission. The faculty award is based on demonstrated outstanding contributions to the public engagement.
  - FSA Scholarship which was awarded to Golden Eagle Scholarship which was awarded to 3.
  - TrueRemove®aight.
  - UTK will host a Japanese Business Roundtable on Tuesday, January 3, 2023.
  - The event will feature Consulate of Japan, Nashville, Yoichi Matsumoto as a leader for the discussion.